Litany of Remembrance led by David Routledge

Leader: Everlasting God, this day revives in us memories of loved ones who are no longer with us. What happiness we shared when they walked among us. What joy we shared when, loving and being loved, we lived our lives together.

All: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Leader: We see them now with the eye of memory, their faults, forgiven, their virtues grown larger. So, does goodness live and weakness fade from sight. We remember them with gratitude and bless their names.

All: Their memory is a blessing forever.

Leader: And we remember as well the members who, but yesterday were part of this parish and community. To all who cared for us and laboured for the good of all people, we give thanks. May we prove worthy of carrying on the tradition of our faith, for now the task is ours.

All: Their souls are linked with ours forever.

Leader: We give thanks that now they live and reign with you. As a great cloud of witnesses, they surround us with their blessings and offer you hymns of praise and thanksgiving.

All: They are alive forevermore. AMEN.

*Offertory Sentence – Remember the words of our Lord Jesus, who said, “It is more blessed to give than to receive.”
A collection will be taken at this time.*

Offertory Hymn – I Vow to Thee My Country THAXTED

1. I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love;
The love that asks no question,
the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters,
the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

2. And there's another country,
I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her,
most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies,
we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart,
her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently
her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness,
and all her paths are peace.

followed by a Brass Interlude

followed by Hymn # 575 - Let Streams of Living Justice Flow THAXTED

Eucharistic Prayer 2

- Celebrant* The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
- Celebrant* Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
- Celebrant* Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.
- Celebrant* We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Redeemer. He is your living Word, through whom you have created all things. By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature. He lived and died as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all. In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering, to bring release to those who place their hope in you; and so, he won for you a holy people. He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows, and to give up his life on the cross, that he might shatter the chains of evil and death, and banish the darkness of sin and despair. By his resurrection he brings us into the light of your presence. Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

SANCTUS

The musical score is written on a single staff in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. It begins with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic. The lyrics are: "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might... Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, Lord, God of pow'r and might... Heav - en and earth are full, full of your glo - ry. Ho - sa - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est". The score includes various dynamics: mp at the beginning, f for "Heav - en and earth are full", mf for "glo - ry", f for "Bless - ed is he who", and dim. for the final phrase. There are also hairpins for crescendo and decrescendo.

- Celebrant* Holy and gracious God, accept our praise, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread and gave you thanks, saying,
"Take, and eat: this is my body which is broken for you."
In the same way, he took the cup, saying,
"This is my blood which is shed for you.
When you do this, you do it in memory of me."

Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection,
 we offer you this bread and this cup,
 giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.
 We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church.
 Gather into one all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory through your Servant, Jesus Christ.
 All glory and honour are yours, Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and forever.

People AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Officiant: As our Saviour Christ has taught us, we pray,

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy name,
 thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread,
 and forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, the power,
 and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of Bread

Celebrant Lord, we died with you on the cross
All Now we are raised to new life.
